e.V.

§1 Duty of payment

(1) According to §7 of the associations statute, members of the association have to pay fees and apportionments.

(2) Exempted from fee payment are elected honorary members and members in financial hardship. For the latter, it is required to provide a justification in written form to the association board.

§2 Amount of fees

(1) The monthly fees may cover

- a) the standard fee: 20.00 Euro;
- b) children and adolescents below 16 years of age: 10.00 Euro;
- c) students older than 16 years, apprentices, university students: 15.00 Euro;
- d) members, that will not join a team in competition: 10.00 Euro;
- e) supporting members: funding support fee discretionary, but not below 20.00 Euro;
- f) members in financial hardship are exempt from fee payment with consent of the board of the association required;
- g) inactive memberships or elected honorary members are exempt from fee payment;

§3 Beginning of liability to contribution

The liability to contribution starts with becoming a member of the association. The fee for the first month has to be paid in full.

§4 Inactive memberships

(1) During pregnancy, maternal leave or parental leave, association members may opt for an inactive membership. It starts upon application and ends with ending parental leave. The duration of parental leave may be estimated when applying for inactive membership.

(2) Members going abroad for longer than 6 months who are therefore unable to participate in the activities of the association may opt for an inactive membership. This also holds for members at military service or social voluntary service of state. A justification has to be provided to the board.

(3) Members that cannot participate in the activities of the association due to long term injury for more than 2 complete months may opt for an inactive membership at the beginning of the third month covering the whole period. A justification has to be provided to the board.

(4) For members that have been abroad longer than 6 months, the duty of payment begins on the first day of the month following the day of arrival.

(5) For members at military service or social voluntary service of state, the duty of payment begins on the first day of the month following the day of discharge.

§5 End of liability to contribution

- (1) The membership ends according to §8 of the associations statute.
- (2) When leaving the association, the duty of fee payment terminates at the date of written notice, which may only be declared at the end of a quarter with a period of notice of at least one month. Fees being paid after the death of a member (including the fees for the month of death) may be compensated upon application by the inheritors of the member.
- (3) In case of exclusion from the association, the member is required to pay fees to the end of the quarter in which the exclusion process has been initiated.

§6 Admission fee

- (1) All new members have to pay an admission fee of 40.00 Euro.
- (2) Members who have left the association have to pay a 40.00 Euro admission fee when rejoining the association.
- (3) Children of active association members do not have to pay the admission fee when becoming a member of the association.

§7 Mode of payment

- (1) The monthly fee payments may be collected via direct debiting each month or may be transferred by the member on a monthly or quarterly basis using standing orders.
- (2) In case of direct debiting, the 15th of each month is obligatory.
- (3) The admission fee has to be paid together with the first regular fee.
- (4) If the fee payment duty starts after the date of direct debiting, the monthly fee and the admission fee have to be transferred to the bank account of the association by the member.
- (5) The payment of apportionments is regulated separately.

§8 Late payment

- (1) Members causing back postings have to pay for possible charges caused by the back posting.
- (2) Members who do not pay on the due date are reminded of their duty by being charged with overdue fine. Members may be admonished a second time by being threatened with their exclusion if they fail to pay the amount owed within 14 days.
- (3) If members do not pay the amount owed within that period, juridical enforcement proceedings are initiated.

§9 Change of membership fees

If membership fees or admission fees are changed by the members' assembly, all members are informed in an appropriate way.

§10 Player licenses

Charges for player licenses have to be paid by the association member.

The costs of 25.00 Euro is included in the admission fee (§6).
